is held twice a year at the Royal Academy of Music—viz., during the Academy Summer and Christmas vacations.

Candidates must enter their names with the Secretary upon a form of application which may be obtained from him, free of charge, stating in which Subject they wish to be examined, and (as regards Subjects I. and II.) in which Class of that Subject. There are two periods of examination: the First the latter half of September, 1900, and the Second about the end of December, 1900, and the beginning of January 1901. ~~Candidates who wish to be examined during the~~ SUBJECT II.—Singing.

Examiners in 1900-1901—FRANCIS KORBAY; W. SHAKESPEARE, F.R.A.M.; FRED. WALKER, Hon. R.A.M.; A. RANDEGGER, Hon. R.A.M. (Chairman).

Class A, PERFORMERS AND TEACHERS (the Candidate having passed in Classes B and C); Class B, TEACHERS; Class C, PERFORMERS.

Candidates in this subject who wish to be examined both as Performer and Teacher will be required to enter their names and pay the full fee for each class, and will undergo a distinct examination in each case.

All Candidates will be required to sing diatonic and chromatic studies, copies of which will be given to them on entering their names, or may be purchased at the Academy at any time (price 1s.); and they will be required to sing, in the language in which the title is given, one piece of their own selection from each of the following two lists for their respective voices (two pieces in all). The pieces are to be chosen so as to exemplify either the declamatory* or sustained style in one and the florid* style in the other. Candidates must sing a Recitative; therefore, should neither of their selected pieces be associated with one, then the Recitative connected with any other piece in either list may be chosen.

* Those pieces marked D are in either the declamatory or sustained style; those marked F are in the florid style.

All Candidates (except in Subjects I. and VI., and excepting such as hold any of the following British diplomas :—Mus. Doc., Mus. Two hours will be allowed for the working of the paper. Candidates claiming exemption must send proofs in support of such claim, with their application.

In order to pass, Candidates are required to obtain at least seventy-five per cent. of the possible number of marks in each branch of the examination. Those, however, who fail to obtain this percentage in the THEORETICAL portion will be permitted to attend either of the next two Examinations, in that branch only, upon payment of a further fee of one guinea, provided that they shall have satisfied the Examiners in their practical Examination; and such of them as succeed at this further trial will be qualified for election as Licentiates.

Candidates who fail at this further trial will, should they enter again, be required to pay the full fee and be examined in both the practical and theoretical branches. Those who, while successful in the theoretical branch, fail in the practical portion of their examination, will be required to undergo both branches of the examination should they again become candidates.

Candidates who satisfy the Examiners in both portions of their examination (theoretical and practical) in any subject will be created LICENTIATES OF THE ROYAL ACADEMY OF MUSIC.
